

On The Lighter Side of Serious Stuff . . . from the Web

These are too important or too funny to pass up. So much truth with so few words!

Matt Walsh @MattWalshBlog

If I said that it was important to "preserve the culture" of some primitive jungle tribe in the Amazon, everyone would nod in agreement. But if I say it's important to preserve the culture of a small town in rural America, I'm denounced as a bigot. For Americans, the only culture we're not supposed to preserve is our own.
